Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you that the United Nations is currently scheduling the young professionals programme (YPP) examination for 2022, for which the application period is expected to open later this year.

The YPP is an initiative to recruit young, qualified professionals from Member States that are unrepresented or underrepresented. The YPP was approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 65/247 with the objective of improving the geographical representation of Member States in the Secretariat. All Member States whose representation status is un-/under-represented or at risk, as of the data available from 28 February 2022 are invited to participate in the 2022 exam cycle.

In this respect, I am pleased to inform you that eligible nationals of Vietnam can apply to the 2022 YPP examination. All participating Member States in the 2022 YPP will be announced on the YPP website (careers.un.org/ypp) in mid-June 2022. Please inform us by Friday, 10 June 2022 should Vietnam wish to opt out of the 2022 examination by writing to ypp-exams@un.org. If we do not hear by the above date, we will assume that nationals of Vietnam will have the opportunity to participate in the examination. Please note: there is no cost associated to allow your nationals to participate.

The Human Resources Services Division in the Office of Support Operations, Department of Operational Support will conduct a formal briefing at Headquarters in New York in June 2022. This briefing will provide further details, including the mode of administration and the subjects of this year's examination. Kindly inform us via email (ypp-exams@un.org) of the name and contact details of the representative in the Permanent Mission who will serve as a focal point for the YPP. Questions may also be directed to the email address.

I look forward to strengthening our relationship with Vietnam and improving this unique recruitment programme for your prospective professionals to the United Nations.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
